

Versa Garden™ HERBS

AQUAEL

Modular vertical gardens system

Fresh herbs are indispensable for good cooking. Until recently, growing them at home could be a real ordeal. Not anymore! AQUAEL is proud to present VERSA GARDEN HERBS, a unique vertical gardening system for growing herbs at home. Just attach it to the wall in a sunny spot and enjoy a constant supply of fresh herbs. Its pockets hold up to six standard herb pots. A system of irrigation tubules will keep the herbs fresh and flavourful for many weeks. The flush of green on your kitchen wall is a wonderful decoration. No maintenance is required other than regularly pouring water into the upper pocket, which only takes a moment. Using the VERSA GARDEN HERBS system, you will save time and money with a guaranteed daily supply of fresh aromatic herbs to make every dish taste like heaven.
